

Tuesday November 25th

[Alaric was in St Peter's Eaton Square School]

It is a state and religious school.

The timetable is different from our school : they start at 9am and finish at 3pm.

They go to school everyday but they don't go on Saturday and Sunday / Except on Saturday and Sunday.

After school they can go in clubs (judo or chess clubs).

They wear a uniform, a tie, a blue jumper and pants.

There is a uniforms for sports.

They haven't got school bags because their books are in the classroom.

In class they usually write they listen to the teacher.

They haven't got lunchbox because there is a canteen.

There is less homework.
